

ST MARY'S CHURCH, WHISSONSETT

RESPONSES EXHIBITION

Commemorating the end of WW1
throughout November

The church will be filled with thoughtful themed art by the residents of Whissonsett. Read the display of memories of those from Whissonsett who served and look at the village peace celebrations. The animals who gave so much are also remembered.

Warm to the sea of red commemorative poppies
See the "There But Not There" soldiers in the pews together with "Tommies" guarding the prayer corner.

The church gates are already guarded by a "Tommy" and two more will be at the war memorial in the churchyard together with over 100 poppies made from recycled plastic
